

Glossosoma Caddisfly

Fun Facts!

- Saddle-case Making Caddisflies
- Family Glossosomatidae
- Case is like a turtle shell: open at both ends and made of small stones
- Portable case protects the larva as it moves around the stream bottom grazing on algae growing on top of rocks
- Found in rivers and lakes on the top of rocks